

On 2024-07-15, Astraerus Pharmaceuticals conducted a routine quality control check for batch number 003951. The test methods employed included HPLC and UV-Vis spectroscopy to ensure the product met all specified standards. The certificate license number 87523901 was verified and attached to the report. The analytical data indicated that the product was within the acceptable range for purity and potency.